DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
WILLIAM J. BRYAN, of Nebraska.

For Vice President,
JOHN W. KERN, of Indiana.

Mr. Bryan's Notification party last Wednesday was a most delightful affair, but some one must have let the nomination cat out of the bag, for the next President did not seem to be much surprised.

Why is it in Kentucky lynchings they always hang a negro "on the edge of town?"—Macon News.

Because a town in which such things can be done is "on the edge," and the ragged edge at that.

The departure of Samuel Gompers for Ohio, where he will speak on behalf of William Jennings Bryan, is taken as an indication that the labor leaders intend to take an active part in the campaign.

Writes a correspondent: "Ohio is certainly to be commended for the way her laws are enforced. There's no seining or shooting there out of season. In Kentucky everything goes, even to killing the Governor, and 'no questions asked.'"

President McCrea, of the Pennsylvania railroad, has refused the demand of some of his directors that additional men be put to work to bolster up the Republican prosperity claims, and will, on the contrary, lay off about 4,000 men whose services are not needed.

Welcome to Senator Onion and Capt. Garlick, of Texas, who have offered to whoop it up for the Democratic ticket. The names of these two gentlemen are known from Maine to California.—Louisville Times.

They certainly do make a very strong team.

The campaign could offer no more significant a feature than the New York World's decision to support Mr. Bryan for the Presidency, for there has been no newspaper in the country more persistent in its attacks upon the Democratic leader. But there are some things which that newspaper, together with myriads of other citizens who have heretofore been lukewarm toward Mr. Bryan, cannot stand. These things are championed by the Republican party and embodied in Roosevelt and Taft. And so the World, nauseated by the Republican menu, turns hopefully and gladly to the Democratic side. It sees in Mr. Bryan a chance for a clean round and patriotic Government—a square deal in practice and not merely by pretense. And the way the World feels about it is the way millions of other independent voters feel. Day by day, then, the Nebraskan's prospects look up.

You May Need It

Ask your doctor about the wisdom of your keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, ready for colds, coughs, croup, bronchitis. If he says it's all right, then get a bottle of it at once. Why not show a little foresight in such matters? Early treatment, early cure.

Many a boy is called dull and stupid, when the whole trouble is due to a lazy liver. We firmly believe your own doctor will tell you that an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills will do such boys a great deal of good. They keep the liver active.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

A cabinet officer who can strain his conscience sufficiently to say "Whatever the President says is right," is certainly the wrong Mr. Wright.

The Republican clubs of Washington have arranged for a Taft notification meeting and have chosen a park near the city where negroes are not allowed to enter. This action has still further estranged the colored voters.

At the meeting of the Democratic State Campaign Committee held in Louisville last Tuesday Robert G. Phillips, of Elizabethtown, was elected secretary by a unanimous vote. Judge S. W. Hager was elected chairman of the Speakers' Bureau, and it was voted to name a campaign chairman in every county in the State. Some of these were named and others will be named at later meetings.

A serious clash between Sheriff Tom Rhea, of Logan county, and State soldiers stationed at Russellville took place when Sheriff Rhea reached Russellville with the negro Rufus Browder. The Sheriff resented the efforts of the militiamen to surround the prisoner, and when two soldiers climbed on the seat of the carriage, threw them to the ground and the wheels of the vehicle passed over one of the men. After the negro had been placed in jail a conference was held by the sheriff with Capt. Dan Carrell and R. J. McBryde, Jr., at which peace between the civil and military authorities was established.

For the third time in his political career William J. Bryan was notified on Wednesday of his nomination for the Presidency of the United States by the Democratic party. The notification ceremonies took place on the grounds at the State Capitol at Lincoln, Neb., and were attended by John W. Kern, Mr. Bryan's running mate; Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and many other prominent Democrats. Congressman Henry D. Clayton, who was chairman of the convention at Denver which placed Mr. Bryan in nomination, delivered the notification speech to which Mr. Bryan responded in a speech setting forth the issues of the campaign. Mr. Bryan gave a dinner to the Notification Committee in the evening. Chairman Mack plans to leave Chicago for Lincoln early in the week, immediately after a meeting of the various heads of the subcommittees of the Democratic National Committee, at which tentative plans for the campaign will be formulated.

Singling out the County Judge and the County Attorney of Bracken county, Gov. Willson accuses them of a most shameful disregard of their oaths to perform their duty to the people, in a statement he makes public explaining his remission of the State's part of a fine assessed against Walnright Lee for breach of the peace in Bracken county. The Governor depicts the conditions that prevail in that county as direful in the extreme, owing to what he says is the open sympathy of these officials with the night riders and their failure to protect the lives and liberties of the people as they are required under the law to do. No more bitter arraignment of subordinate officials has probably ever been delivered by a Governor of Kentucky than Gov. Willson directs at these two officers of Bracken county. He promises immunity from punishment to everyone who may resist attack or attempt at intimidation by the lawless element.

Succeeds His Father.

Julian Harris, son of Joel Chandler Harris, succeeds his father as editor of Uncle Remus's—The Home Magazine, retaining also his original position as general manager. Don R. Marquis, who has already made a reputation through his editorials, poems and short stories, is to continue as associate editor of the magazine. From his childhood, Julian Harris had been the comrade of his father, and he was the organizing spirit of the magazine. He is his father's literary executor, and not only are "Uncle Remus's" last writings in his possession, but his collaboration with his father on two important unpublished works—which will be given to the public during the year—and his intimate acquaintance with the purposes and ideals of his father, he is eminently fitted to carry out the cherished plans of the founder of the magazine.

VALUED SAME AS GOLD.

B. G. Stewart, a merchant of Cedar View, Miss., says: "I tell my customers when they buy a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills they get the worth of that much gold in weight, if afflicted with constipation, malaria or biliousness." Sold under guarantee at A. M. Hughes' drug store, Louisa, Ky., 25c.

GOOD BREAD

"My bread won't raise" is a common complaint among housekeepers. A distressing thing, but there's always a cause. Nine times out of ten it's on account of the flour.

Dewey's Best Flour
does away with such complaints. If you can bake at all, you can have good luck with it. It is a flour with life in it. Made of best wheat, blump grains, ground by a superior process. The miller that makes it knows how.

Institute Resolutions.

The following resolutions presented by the Committee appointed to draft resolutions expressing the sense of the Institute upon various matters, were unanimously adopted:

We, the teachers of Lawrence county, Kentucky, in Institute assembled, hereby make the following resolutions:

1. That we most heartily appreciate the kindness of the people of Louisa in opening their homes to us during this week.

2. That we thank those to whom we are indebted for the use of the school building and the piano.

3. That we thank the Superintendent for the selection of such able instructors and his other efforts to make the Institute pleasant and profitable.

4. That we extend our heartfelt thanks to Mr. M. B. Haws for his helpfulness in making our Institute more pleasant by his services as pianist.

5. That we appreciate the endeavors of our instructors, Prof. G. M. Elam and Prof. J. B. McClure, to make the Institute profitable, and the able manner in which they carried out the programme.

6. That we appreciate the interest shown by visitors to our Institute, and the part they took in the discussions.

7. That we most heartily thank the programme committee and those who had part on the programme for the excellent entertainment given on Wednesday evening.

8. That we condemn the use of tobacco and intoxicants in any form.

9. That it is the sense of this Institute that the public schools of the State are the means by which it may make the most rapid progress in many lines.

10. That we endorse the new school law, believing that its thorough testing will prove its merits.

11. That we endorse the School Improvement League and will do all in our power to carry out its principles.

12. That we heartily endorse and appreciate the Southern School Journal and its efforts to build up the public schools of Kentucky.

13. That we deplore the fact that a large per cent of the children of school age in Kentucky do not attend school; we, therefore, petition our State legislature to give us effective compulsory school law.

14. That a copy of these resolutions be presented for publication in our county papers and in the Southern School Journal.

MUST BELIEVE IT

When Well-Known Louisa People
Tell it so Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Louisa, the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

John F. Stump, living in Louisa, Ky., says: "I have been troubled for some time with kidney complaint. I used a number of different remedies and doctored with the best physicians, but Doan's Kidney Pills gave me far more relief than any remedy I ever used. They proved of marked benefit and acted just as represented in my case. The lameness and soreness through my back disappeared. The trouble that existed with the kidneys was corrected and the kidneys were restored to their normal condition. I give this testimonial in behalf of those suffering from the same disease."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

A Farm Wanted.

I have an inquiry for a good farm having a comfortable residence and good orchard on it. Would prefer quality rather than quantity. Those having farms for sale will do well to write me at once, giving full description, price, number of acres level, kind of house, and all particulars that would interest a buyer. Prefer a place within easy reach of Louisa.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a humming sound or imperfect hearing, and when this is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
